

Anning Class Social story

Miss Bartaby is leaving Nansledan school and will no longer be my class teacher.

After the Easter holidays I am going to have a new teacher. My new teacher is called Miss Flude. Most of the children will already recognise Miss Flude in Anning Class.

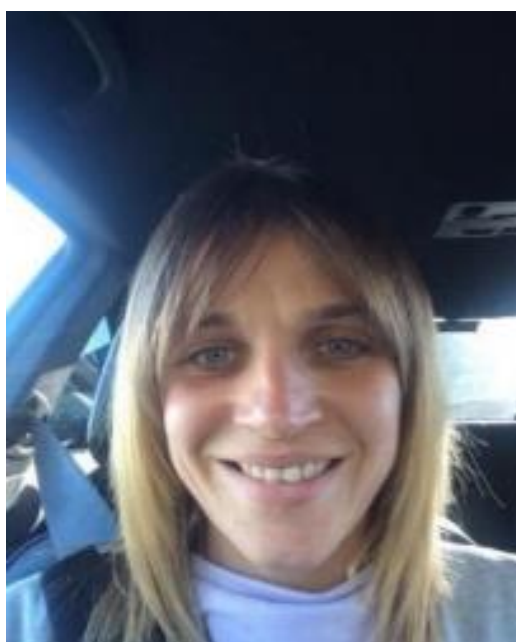

I feel extremely lucky to be able to teach you again and I am SO excited to be part of Anning Class!

I hope you all have a lovely Easter holidays and I look forward to welcoming you on Monday morning for lot's of fun!

Miss Flude will be on the door to welcome me into Anning Class on Monday morning.

Miss Mann and Miss Steale are amazing Teaching Assistants in Anning class. They will also be helping me in class.

Miss Flude is really looking forward to seeing me back at school for lots of fun!

There will be lots of grown-ups in Anning class so if I feel worried about anything I can go and talk to them!
