

Wild Winter Weather!

We all know how windy it gets at Nansledan School. Please continue to ensure you're your child comes to school with their coat and waterproofs. Hopefully Spring will spring soon!

Emergency School Closure arrangements

We only ever close school as a last resort. If the weather is particularly problematic, this could result in a school closure and an Arbor App message will be sent out to all families. Please check / listen to the following: Pirate FM, BBC Radio Cornwall, Goldmine FM and Heart FM.

Date of Issue:

25th February 2020

Wraparound provision

Please note that from Monday 24th February, this will now be held in Marconi classroom which is the classroom situated on the opposite side of the Studio. At the start of the day, you will still be able to access Early Birds from the rear of the school. The afterschool club will now be dismissed from the main school office and side entrance gates will now be closed at the end of the school day. When you arrive to collect your child, please press the buzzer in the school entrance.

Friends of Nansledan

The Friends of Nansledan will be gathering for the first official meeting on Monday 2nd March at 3:30pm. In this meeting, the chairperson, secretary and treasurer will be elected. If you would like to nominate someone for one of these roles, please speak to them first to get their agreement (!) and then email us at hello@nansledanschool.org with details of your nomination. Details of the specific roles can be found on our website. Thank you!

St Piran's Day - We've decided to invite pupils to come to school dressed in a Cornish themed outfit on Thursday 5th March. We suggest Cornish tartan, black & white or Cornish Gold. We'll be performing The Trelawny together also.

Our World Book Day - Friday 13th March

As we are celebrating St Piran's Day on 5th March, we will be celebrating our own World Book Day the following week. Children are invited to come dressed as their favourite book character. No donations necessary as this is not a fundraising event.

If you have an old costume you are happy to donate, we will have a costume swap rail in the school entrance foyer from Monday 9th March.

Coronavirus Update

As an Aspire Trust School, we are continuing to seek regular updates and guidance to ensure minimised risk. We will keep you informed where necessary of any changes to procedures.
